PETERBORO, May 14th, 1869.

DEAR SIR:

I desire to call your attention to the following rare opportunity for making yourself acquainted with the doings of the literary world—and furnishing yourself with the choicest literature of the day:—

I offer to supply the reading of the four Quarterlies (London, Edinburgh, North British, and Westminster Quarterly Reviews) and Blackwood, for the year 1869, for $1, payable in advance. You are, no doubt, aware that these periodicals cost $4 each, so that you are offered $20 worth of reading for $1.

If you wish this little enterprize success, after having persuaded yourself to patronize it, please drop a favorable word to some one else, and you will oblige,

Yours, &c.,

A. B. KIDD,

Bookseller and Stationer.

P. M. Groves Esqr. M. P.
